PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

Visio respects your privacy and is committed to protect and responsibly manage your personal information. To comply with the new Protection of Personal Information (POPI) Act, Visio requires your consent and authorisation to process your information, including your special information as defined by the POPI Act, which Visio collects and processes to enable us to provide the services, assistance and/or product solutions you may require.

The POPI Act defines the “processing” of personal information as:

“any operation or activity or any set of operations, whether or not by automatic means, concerning personal information, including –

(a) the collection, receipt, recording, organisation, collation, storage, updating or modification, retrieval, alteration, consultation, or use;

(b) dissemination by means of transmission, distribution or making available in any other form; or

(c) merging. Linking, as well as restriction, degradation, erasure or destruction of information.”

Visio will collect the minimum required information from you and will process your personal information only for the purpose for which it was collected or as agreed with you. These purposes include:

- to render services to you, to help you take out or maintain financial products and/or carry out the transactions you requested, as well as to maintain our contractual relationship;
- to assist you with queries and/or claims relating to your financial plan;
- to confirm and verify your identity or to verify that you are an authorised user for security purposes, where applicable;
- for audit and record keeping purposes.

Apart from the above reasons, Visio will also process your personal information to comply with legal and regulatory requirements or industry codes to which we subscribe, or which apply to Visio, or when it is otherwise allowed by law.

There will be times when we may need to share your personal information with third party service providers and/or operators (for e.g., investment companies and auditors) who will be involved in the delivery of services to you or to Visio, in support of our service offerings to you and our business.

An ‘operator’ is defined by the POPI Act as: “a person who processes personal information for a responsible party in terms of a contract or mandate, without coming under the direct authority of that party”. Visio is the responsible party with respect to your personal information.

Visio uses an information system called DocFox (<https://docfox.co.za/privacy-policy/>) as one of the third-party operators to process your personal information to help us in providing you with the required services.

Visio is required by law to have agreements in place with these operators to ensure that they protect and process personal information securely.

As a client, you have the right, at any time:

- to ask Visio to update, correct or delete your personal information, which includes the authority and consent provided in this form;
- to object to the processing of your personal information;
- to withdraw your consent;
- to complain to the Information Regulator, whose contact details are:

Tel: 012 406 4818
